Hamper Donation Thanks.

Thankyou to all the very generous people who contributed to the food drive for hampers over the last 2 weeks. The good news is Anglicare has delivered food hampers, this week. So we don't need any more food for now.

Rector Writes

"I forgive you." These are some of the most beautiful words we can ever hear, yet they are also some of the hardest to say at times. As disciples of Jesus, we know that we are called to forgive others. It is even part of the Lord's Prayer. Yet forgiveness is always costly. It means that the person who has been wronged agrees not to harbour vengeance in their heart and agrees to bear the cost of the wrong themselves. We saw this week a miraculous example of forgiveness, when the mother of the three children tragically killed last Saturday night appeared on the national television and said that she forgave the man who had been driving the car. She said that she did not hate him and that she wanted to forgive him. She even based her forgiveness in the death of Jesus. She wanted the courts to be fair, but she did not want to hate him. As I read those words, I prayed that I would never have to experience what she was going through. But I also prayed that if I did have to experience that, I would have the courage to act as she did.

Her example was a profound shock to a watching world. Our world today is a very unforgiving place (in every sense of the word). But God's people have something very precious. We can hold out to our world the possibility of forgiveness. We do not just hold out affirmation, we hold out forgiveness, and when our world sees that forgiveness, it does not quite know what to do. We are only able to forgive others because we know that God first forgave us, and we know how much that cost - it was at the price of Jesus' death. As we seek to make and grow disciples of Jesus, the forgiveness which we proclaim and model will be central to that task. For what could be better for our world than to hear these precious words from God: "I forgive you."

AGM

The church AGM for 2020 will be held Sunday 22nd March after the 10am service. More details will be available closer to the date.

Corona Virus Considerations

In view of the outbreak of the Corona Virus, and to follow the Guidelines of the Department of Health in respect to public gatherings, the Church recommends the following actions:

Any person who has cold and flu symptoms should not attend Church for 2 weeks; if they have visited main land China or Hong Kong in the past 2 weeks: or who has been in contact with a person who has visited main land China or Hong Kong in the past 2 weeks. It would also helpful if gloves are used when serving morning tea

We thank you for your understanding and acknowledge that this will not apply to the majority of our congregations.
